

Download Driving Solo Dealing With Grief And The Business Of Financial Survival

My Significant Other of 25 years died January 21, 2018, after developing a truly rare complication of already horrible esophageal cancer. We thought he'd have six months from the time they discovered the tumors in his brain and spine, so I quit a job I loved to be able to be with him. Overshadowed Grief. This is just a guess, but I suspect a lack of sibling grief resources exists because sibling grief is often overshadowed. People simply cannot fathom the out-of-order-ness of a parent having to bury a child, so when this is the case their thoughts and concerns often immediately go to the parent's grief.
